BY WILLARD EDWARDS [Chicago Tribune Press Service]

Washington, Aug. 31 - The state department, in releasing a secret central intelligence Aug. 23, made a significant deletion in a covering memorandum, it was learned today

The apparent purpose of the omission was to downgrade the importance of the document as a government paper representing official opinion.

Only a few changes were made in the body of the re port. With one or two exceptions, they were not of major import.

Acts to Avoid Scoop

These alterations were noted in a comparison of the origina CIA survey of "Trends in the World Situation," dated Feb 19, 1964, and the second, up dated to June 8, which was re leased to a selected group o reporters on Friday, Aug. 21 removing the "secret" label from a paper prepared by the CIA, the nation's espionage branch, because it had learned that its contents were to be published the following Sunday by The Chicago Tribune.

Administration officials emphasized that the secret paper rlid not reflect official foreign policy. It was described as "a thought-provoking" composiagency study for publication tion by one individual, Willard Matthias, and a "think piece" typical of many distributed neutralization." thru government agencies.
